About Tracy

Tracy Kelley is a Speaker, Author, and Ministry Leader from Western Maryland whose message is as honest as it is hopeful. She leads Mary and Martha Ministries, a community of strong, faithful women committed to learning the Word and serving like Mary and Martha.

Tracy came to faith five years ago after a lifetime she describes plainly: five marriages, decades of shame, broke and jobless and ugly crying on the floor in her fifties. She doesn't soften her past. She owns it fully because she knows it's exactly that story that God uses to reach women in the back row, wondering if grace is really for her too.
